Based on Reading Horizons Discovery® Little Book "Safari"

Ruby and Brody are in Africa to go on a safari. A safari is a trip to see how animals live daily in the wild. Ruby is a lady who knows a lot about animals. Her duty is to spot animals while Brody drives. The road is bumpy and dusty. They have not had a rainy day for weeks. Ruby takes a photo of the hazy landscape.

When y comes at the end of a word with another working vowel before it, y will say long e.

Lesson 64: Last Job of Y

Mark both vowels in the words below. Divide each word into syllables, using Decoding Skill 1, and determine the sound of the vowel in the first syllable. Since y is at the end of the word, and there is a working vowel that comes before it, put a small e above the y, and mark the e long. Then read each word. The first word has been done for you.

Read the following thank you note. Then circle the Last Job of Y words.

Dear Lucy,

Thank you so much for the baby gift. That navy dress is so cute and tiny. I can't wait to put it on her. I hope I will be a good mom like you. Please come to see us anytime.

Your friend,

Suzy
