Based on Reading Horizons Discovery® Little Book “Be Nice to Dogs”

A fable is a simple tale that teaches a lesson.

Dwight had a dog named Uncle Chuckle. Dwight dressed Uncle Chuckle in a little pair of pants every day. Uncle Chuckle would wiggle and jiggle out of the pants. So, Dwight put a buckle on Uncle Chuckle’s pants. One day Uncle Chuckle spoke to Dwight. “I do not like to be dressed like people,” he said with a grumble. The next day, Dwight was gentle with his dog. He even gave him an apple.

Words that end in -le have the sound /ul/, as in bubble. Put a small schwa between the l and the consonant before it. There is no working vowel — only a vowel sound — in the last syllable.

Lesson 69: -LE at the End of a Word

Prove and read the words below. Remember: bl, fl, and pl are Blends. Mark them. The first two words have been done for you.

This exercise provides practice adding suffixes to words ending with y.

Lesson 71: Adding Suffixes to Words Ending in Y

1. When a word ends in an adjacent vowel with y, just add an s to make the word plural: dayss.

Add the s to the following words. Then read each word.

keys      ways      delays

2. When y follows a consonant, change the y to an i, and add -es, -ed, or -est. Example: dry drieses drieded driestest

Add -es, -ed, or -est as shown. Then read each word.

pony+ies= ponies

tidy+ied= tidied

3. When -ing is added to a word ending in y, leave the y, and add -ing. Example: fly+ing=flying

Add -ing to the following words. Then read the words.

dry+ing= drying

supply+ing= supplying

Some of the words in the sentence below ended in y before a suffix was added. Read each sentence. Then circle those words.

The tiniest ponies are happiest when they are prancing.
