Cloze Passage

Name _____ Date _____

Based on Reading Horizons Discovery® Little Book
“Drake and the Earthquake”

Each morning, Drake went to the barn to milk his cows. He used the milk to make different kinds of cheese. He sold the cheese at the market.

Each Friday, he loaded his wooden cart with jugs of milk, boxes of cheese, and glass jars of thick cream. Then he walked to the market to sell the things in his cart.

Drake liked to sit on a stool next to his cart and play his flute. The music would bring people to his cart each week. Drake liked going to the market.

The /k/ sound at the end of a word can be spelled four different ways: -ke, -ck, -k, and -c.

Lesson 90: Spelling with -KE, -CK, -K, and -C

-KE: In a one-syllable word, if the vowel sound is long right before the ending /k/ sound, there are two ways to spell /k/. The first is -ke, the silent e rule. Prove and read the following words. The first word has been done for you.

spōke strike brāke flūke Dūke

-CK: In a one-syllable word, if the vowel sound is short and no other consonant is heard, the ending /k/ spelling is -ck (back.) Prove and read the following words. The first word has been done for you.

pick deck slack truck lock

-K: In a one-syllable word, if the vowel sound is long or you hear a Murmur Diphthong or Special Vowel Sound right before the ending /k/ sound, the word is spelled with a -k. Prove the following words. The first word has been done for you.

peek hawk look beak park

If the consonant l, n, or s is heard right before the /k/ ending sound, the word is spelled with a -k (milk, honk, ask). Prove and read the following words. The first word has been done for you.

silk bank hunk elk dusk

-C: Words that have more than one syllable and end in the sound /k/ are spelled with a -c (traffic). Exception: attack. Prove and read the following words. The first word has been done for you.
