B. In my class, there are ten students. We are all from the United States, but each of us is from a different city. I use my brother's car to get to school when I can because I live an hour away. School is not close, but what can I do? My brother said he needs his car next week. My friend and I were planning to ride to class together. We are not sure which public transportation to take instead. I asked my friend, "Can we take your mom's van to school?" She will ask.
